In order to attend a skiing or snowboarding course you MUST become a member of the Snowsport Scotland Coaching Scheme prior to booking a place on the course. Members of any of the other Home Nations' Coaching Schemes are exempt. If so, a copy of your current licence MUST be included. Please indicate below which scheme you belong to. Registration is not necessary to attend a First Aid Course.

- Snowsport England
- Snowsport Wales
- Snowsport Scotland – Registration Number: _____

It is also a requirement that before you receive your licence and qualification after the course that you have a current first aid certificate. This must be from a course with a minimum of 12 hours contact time, and from an HSE approved provider.

Members of the Snowsport Scotland Coaching Scheme are fully covered for professional indemnity and civil liability insurance. For all courses you must take out your own personal accident insurance and for courses abroad you are advised to take out additional travel insurance covering cancellation and curtailment. This can be arranged through Snowsport Scotland's affiliated insurance company, TGIC Online. Call them on 0845 345 3456 for details.

If this application is accepted I agree to abide by such regulations as Snowsport Scotland or its representatives may consider it advisable to make, in order to secure the safety and comfort of those taking part in the courses. All candidates MUST read and accept the terms and conditions. A copy of which can be found on our website, www.snowsportscotland.org.
